MEMO TO COUNSEL RE: Barbara Murchison v. Michael Astrue
Civil No. JFM-08-2665

Dear Counsel:

I have reviewed the memoranda submitted in connection with plaintiff's motion for relief from judgment.

I have concluded that for me either to enter an order under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(5) or to issue a memorandum indicating that I would be inclined to enter such an order in the event of a remand would further confuse what is already a confusing situation. If plaintiff believes that things that have occurred while this case has been on appeal need to be further addressed, it should request supplemental briefing (and perhaps a supplemental oral argument) in the Fourth Circuit.

Despite the informal nature of this letter, it should be flagged as an opinion and docketed as an order.

Very truly yours,

/s/

J. Frederick Motz
United States District Judge
